APRIL 2020

Dear Families,

An online version of KIDsource is on the school district's website at www.moorheadschoools.org/KIDsource. KIDsource is distributed to all grades K-6 students in Moorhead elementary schools and at Horizon West. # 2020 Census FAQ

What is the census?

The census is a count of every person who lives in the United States and its territories. It happens every 10 years. In early 2020, you will be asked to count everyone who lives in your home as of April 1. Responding to the 2020 Census is a chance to shape your future.

What's in it for me?

Your responses inform where over $675 billion is distributed each year to communities nationwide for clinics, schools, roads, and more.

Minnesota receives $15 Billion annually—that's approximately $28,000 per Minnesotan we stand to lose if we don't get a complete count.

Census data gives community leaders vital information to make decisions about building community centers, opening businesses, and planning for the future.

Responding also fulfills your civic duty because it's mandated by the U.S. Constitution. The United States has counted its population every 10 years since 1790.

Your responses are used to redraw legislative districts and determine the number of seats your state has in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Minnesota is projected to lose one of its 8 seats; a complete count is critical to maintain representation.

Is my information safe?

Your responses to the 2020 Census are safe, secure, and protected by federal law. Your answers can only be used to produce statistics. They cannot be used against you by any government agency or court in any way—not by the FBI, not by the CIA, not by the DHS, and not by ICE.

When can I respond to the census?

In early 2020, every household in America will receive a notice to complete the census online, by phone, or by mail. In May, the U.S. Census Bureau will begin following up in person with households that have yet to respond.

For more information, visit:

2020CENSUS.GOV

What will I be asked?

You will be asked a few simple questions, like age, sex, and the number of people who live in your home, including children.

What won't be asked?

The census will never ask for Social Security numbers, bank or credit card numbers, money or donations, or anything related to political parties.

Keeping the Conversation Going!

In a world of text messaging, Twitter and Facebook, the face-to-face/person-to-person conversation format is becoming as extinct as the dinosaurs. It begs the question – is starting a conversation and keeping it going a necessary skill our kids should have or is it just one more of the “old” way of doing things that can go by the wayside?

Parents who talk with their kids not only help increase their child’s vocabulary, they are teaching them important social skills and expanding their awareness of the world around them. Learning the art of conversing with your child while he or she is younger will help build an open communication channel that will come in handy for the “older child” conversations about curfews, sex and substance use. Having a conversation with younger children is much easier than cornering that independent adolescent! Unless you are good at deciphering grunts and eye rolling, starting and keeping a conversation going can be a challenge. Here are a few suggestions to starting a conversation and keeping it going:

- Follow your child’s lead in conversations. If she or he initiates a conversation, respond to it. Don’t use it as a time to tell them what chores they need to do or lecture them on something they did wrong.
- Encourage talk by talking about the things you both know about.
- Reply to your child’s comments.
- Designate a time that is for face-to-face conversation only – a no cellphone zone for both child and parent!
- Use a conversation jar or something similar. Fill a decorated jar, bowl or even a small notebook. Keep it on the dining room table. Fill it with slips of papers that contain questions. (See below for examples.) Each night while eating dinner or during your “No cellphone zone,” have the child pick a slip out of the jar. Make the activity fun by having all members of the family answer the question. You will be amazed at the things you can learn about your children and them about you with a few simple questions and rich conversations! Here’s a few questions to get you started on your conversation jar 😊

If you had three wishes what would they be?	If you won a million dollars, what would you do with it?	What was your least favorite subject in school?	What is your favorite subject in school?
If you could take a trip on a spaceship, which two friends would you take with?	Who is your best friend and why?	If you were allowed to stop doing one chore around the house, what would it be?	What are some of the things you want to do in life that you probably couldn’t do if you got into drugs and alcohol?
Tell one thing that you are proud of about yourself.	What is one thing you wish someone would invent? Why?	If you could have anything in the world for dinner, what would it be?	What makes you laugh?
If you could be on any television show, which show would it be?	Tell us a favorite memory.	If you could invite any famous person to dinner, who would you pick?	What could you do to make the world a better place?
